

SAVE THE DATE!

May 9-12, 2014
in Washington DC

We are packing many events into a few days!

FREE Conference! ~ Professionals, moms & supporters invited!
Boxed lunches available Fri & Sat for $20 donation
Expert witness certification $10 fee

1. Battered Mothers & Kids Custody Conference

George Washington University Law School, 2000 H Street, NW, WA DC 20052
Moot Court Room L-101, Lerner Hall (20th & H Streets)

Fri, May 9, 9am-4pm: Domestic Violence Advocate Training with Barry Goldstein & special guests, Rita Smith & Elizabeth Liu of National Coalition Against Domestic Violence - How to help battered mothers in custody cases by implementing new research based practices

Sat, May 10, 9am-5pm: Mothering Under Duress with Joy Silberg, PhD., - How to mother children who are forced to live with abusers

2. Activism Day

Sun, May 11, 11am-4pm: Mothers of Lost Children - March at the White House

3. Lobby Day

Mon, May 12, 9am-5pm: Lobby Day & possible Congressional briefing at the U.S. House of Representatives

Note: The formal BMCC is skipping a year, so this is a mini BMCC. We will all need to make our own arrangements for lodging. The International Hostel [1009 11th Street NW 202-737-2333] and the William Penn House [515 East Capitol St SE (202) 543-5560] are centrally located and inexpensive. Travelocity, Priceline, CheapHotels.com are other ways to find inexpensive options.

